Two Floors and Thousands of Choices...*

Imagine two floors of showcases bristling with the crème de la crème of the jewelry world, the supreme achievement of more than a thousand suppliers, including house-hold names like John Hardy, David Yurman, Mikimoto, TAG Heuer, Rolex and many more. All side-by-side with the up-and-comers: design genius we've searched for and found in exotic, unexpected places, and brought here for you.

That's probably why folks come from significant distances to see that the things they hold dear are in the best of hands, and are rewarded by being handed back a treasured piece that's essentially starting life a new.

Hard to imagine all of this began in 1975 with the dream of legacy jeweler Donnie Thompson and four showcases in Augusta's National Hills Shopping Center. In nearly 40 years Windsor has occupied three different buildings without moving more than 300 feet.

And...being able to show you more than 4,000 engagement and anniversary rings. If you could use a little help in picturing that, imagine a first floor showcase running 52 linear feet and 18 inches deep. All rings. We know of no one else in the industry who can make that claim.

And yet, more important than earning the right to shout that from the rooftop is the simple satisfaction of knowing, by sheer numbers alone, you WILL find what absolutely delights you...here. Here, at the jewelry pride of the South... Windsor Fine Jewelers.

Donnie Thompson serves as the Chief Executive Officer of Windsor Jewelers, LLC.
